

The Graduate School expresses its gratitude to Mr. Kenichi Sasaki for his significant contribution to the development of educational programs

Graduate School Press • July 18, 2024

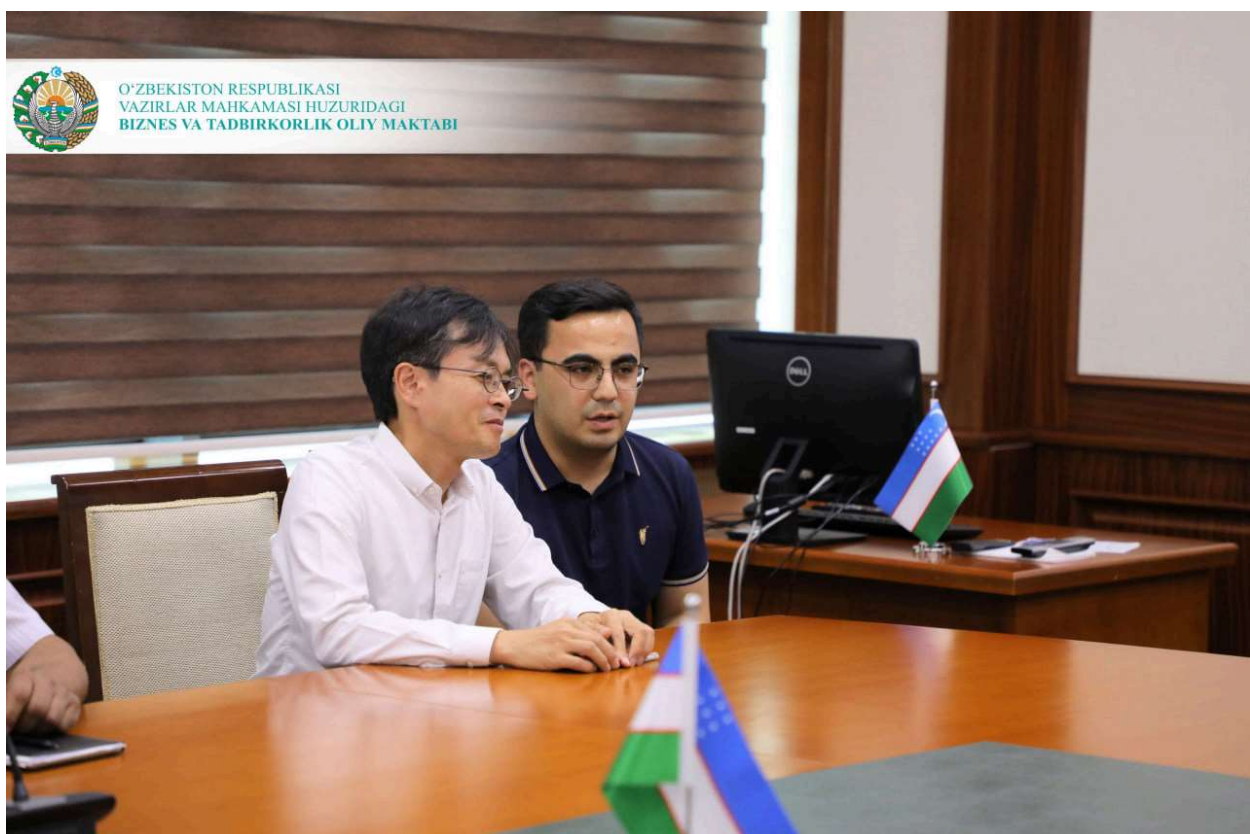

On July 18, 2024, the Graduate School of Business and Entrepreneurship held a farewell meeting with Kenichi Sasaki, a volunteer of the Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA) who has been actively involved in the development of academic programs and cultural initiatives for two years.

The event was attended by the management, faculty and department heads. First Deputy Director of the Graduate School Shakhrukh Sharakhmetov expressed his deep appreciation to Kenichi Sasaki for his hard work, dedication and professionalism. Deputy Director Mirkomil Adilov also noted that the JICA volunteer's contribution has significantly contributed to improving the quality of teaching and enriching the academic programs.

Kenichi Sasaki shared his impressions of working at the Graduate School and expressed his gratitude for the warm welcome and support from the school staff. He emphasized that working at the Graduate School was an invaluable experience that he will remember with special warmth.

The farewell meeting with Kenichi Sasaki emphasized the importance and effectiveness of cooperation between the Graduate School and JICA. Thanks to joint efforts, significant achievements in educational and cultural spheres have been achieved, which will contribute to further development of educational and management practices in Uzbekistan.

About the Graduate School:

The Graduate School is the leading educational institution in Uzbekistan offering innovative programs of education and professional training in business and management. The school actively cooperates with international universities and organizations, introducing the best international practices into the educational process.

About JICA:

The Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA) is a Japanese government agency that implements programs and projects aimed at promoting the development of partner countries. In Uzbekistan, JICA is actively involved in various educational and social projects aimed at improving the skills and welfare of the population.